After perusing the petition and on hearing the counsel for the petitioner I do not think it is necessary to issue notice to the respondent. The petitioner is the wife. She has filed a petition for maintenance before the Family Court, Kannur and another case under Section 498-A IPC is also pending before the Judicial First Class Magistrate Court at Payyannur. It is submitted by her that she is having a two and half year old child and her husband is working abroad. It is also stated that there is nobody to accompany her to Palakkad and it is very difficult for her to come and stay alone in a lodge at Palakkad with a small child. So there are all the difficulties for this lady to come and prosecute the case in Palakkad besides the factum of her financial constraints. Therefore, I am satisfied that there exists sufficient ground to transfer the case even without notice. So, the petition is allowed and O.P.1547/06 pending before the Family Court, Palakkad is transferred to the Family Court, Kannur. The Family Court, Palakkad is directed to give intimation of transfer to the counsel appearing for the husband before actual transfer is effected.

The Tr.P.C. is disposed of accordingly.

M.N. KRISHNAN, JUDGE.
